

The WYANDOTTE VISITOR

2024

Can you believe that summer is nearly over? I sure can't. It seems like every year the summer gets shorter and shorter. School has already been in session a couple of weeks, and as I consider the September calendar, fall will be here sooner than we know it. Autumn begins September 22, but we have so much going on this month, I'm not sure we have room to even include clip art on that date on the calendar.

Among the things we will celebrate this month is Ruth Miller's 90th birthday. Her family has invited friends from the church to stick around on Sunday, September 15 after worship to celebrate with Ruth at a reception in her honor. Anyone who has ever met Ruth knows what a vital part of our ministry she is, and what better opportunity to celebrate her than this milestone birthday.

"Becoming passionately outward-focused for Jesus Christ."

We still have two sermons remaining in our series on Ephesians, but then our focus will shift to our stewardship with a series called "Generous Abundance." Stewardship is about more than just our money and finances. It also has to do with how we care for the other resources we have, our people, our environment, our time, our talents, and our energy. Do we trust God to provide for us? Has God already done so? The membership vows of United Methodist Church include promises to support the church through presence, prayers, gifts, service, and witness, yet, I've always found it more beneficial to consider the ways in which God has blessed us as we consider ways to give back. On page four of this newsletter, we have included a word cloud that includes words related to stewardship and blessing, and I would hope that you might use it as a focal point as you pray about the ways in which you hope to support Wyandotte Church in the coming year. We will receive pledges on Sunday, September 29, and consecrate them at that time. We will then celebrate with a fellowship dinner.

Be sure to check the calendar for all the other things happening this month. I wouldn't want anyone to miss out on any opportunity to share in the love of God and neighbor through our church.

Have a great month!

Blessings,
Pastor Kim

Help Raise Funds for Church Maintenance Projects

Maintaining the church building can be costly and you can help by purchasing gift cards from the Trustees.
 Orders can be turned in to Donna Leshner
 Order forms are available in the sanctuary, next to the offering box.

Our charity quilting group has grown and always needs supplies. If you have unused fabric (especially bright colors), batting, fiberfill, or thread you can spare, please consider donating it to this ministry. They will use these materials to make neck pillows, fidget blankets, lap robes, and other items to improve the comfort of many people.

Thank you for your help!
