OFFICE HOURS

(but please call first!)
 Office closed on Monday

Friends,

As we move into November, our current sermon series on the Fruit of the Spirit, as listed in Galatians 5:22-23, continues. On November 3 we will observe All Saints Sunday with a discussion of Faithfulness and a remembrance of those whom we have lost since this time last year. During Holy Communion, you will be given the opportunity to light candles of remembrance for your loved ones. Daylight Savings Time also ends that morning, so remember to set your clocks back one hour before going to bed on Saturday night. There will be no excuse for being late to worship, since you'll be getting an extra hour of sleep, or arriving an hour early if you fail to change your clock!

It's no secret that the following Tuesday, November 5, is an important date in our country. I encourage everyone who can legally do so to exercise their right to vote in the local and national election if they haven't already done so through early or absentee voting.

November also brings one of the busiest seasons of the year. You may think I'm talking about the fact that Advent and Christmas are on their way, but it's also the time of year when we tackle some of the more mundane administrative tasks of the church. It's time for Charge Conference. The first District Meeting and Charge Conference for the newly-formed Northeast Kansas District of the Great Plains Conference will take place in Wesley Chapel at the Leawood campus of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection on Sunday, November 17, beginning at 1:15 PM and concluding at 3:00 PM. Everyone is welcome to attend.

In order to approve the documents that will be presented at this meeting, it will be necessary for the Administrative Council to meet on Sunday, November 10 following worship. I'm hopeful we can complete our business quickly so everyone can get home in time for a noon kickoff of the Chiefs game against the Denver Broncos.

Meeting these tight deadlines means that several committees will need to meet to prepare the appropriate materials in just the first week and a half of the month. Please be sure to check the calendar on page 3 to make sure you don't miss anything.

Rounding out the month, I will be on vacation November 25-December 1. If you have a pastoral care need during my absence, please contact Rev. Gary Roellchen at 913-602-0660.

Thanksgiving is on Thursday, November 28. The Turk family will be having a family dinner at the church on Thanksgiving Day and have opened an invitation to anyone in the church that doesn't have a place to go that day to join them. Please talk to Cathie Turk if you would like to participate.

Last, but certainly not least, decorating for the Advent Season and Christmas will take place on Saturday, November 30, 2024 at 10:00 AM. Please come join the fun as we brighten and further beautify the space for the season!

Have a great month, and I'll see you around the church!

Blessings,

Pastor Kim

The church has a series of booklets written by Barbara Karnes, RN that deal with end of life issues for people going through challenging times for themselves and loved ones. Please feel free to check them out through the office.

"All memories are not sweet and happy ones, but the variety is what makes life—life. If we never loved, we would not have pain. If we never had pain, we would not know the joy to love and to be loved. Sort through your memories, and may the joyous ones be the ones you dwell upon each day."
