OFFICE HOURS

Tuesday-Friday
9:00AM—12:00PM
(but please call first!)
Office closed on Monday

"June is bustin' out all over!" or so says the song from Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical Carousel. And I can't disagree; what a beautiful spring we have had! All the things that didn't bloom last year really made up for it this year! Our Giving Grove should have a good crop of pears and apples this year to use and to share with our neighbors.

June brings with it the beginning of summer and Annual Conference. The Great Plains Annual Conference will take place June 4-7 at Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina, and I will be attending with our Lay Delegate Pat Gates. Colleen Cook will also be traveling with us as she serves as a Lay Equalization Delegate. Lay Equalization Delegates serve to balance the number of laity votes with the number of eligible clergy votes. This is particularly important in years like this one when we will be ratifying actions that were taken last year at General Conference.

This year, we will vote on four proposed amendments to The United Methodist Church's constitution. Regionalization would reshape the structure of the denomination by creating regional conferences, including one for the United States. Other amendments up for ratification include one involving inclusiveness of the church, one involving racial justice, and another that deals with clergy education requirements for delegates to General Conference. You can find lots of information about all four these amendments in a special part of the Great Plains website — <https://www.greatplainsumc.org/amendments>. Pat Gates will bring a report to the congregation during worship on June 8.

On June 1, we will conclude our "Believing Into Christ" series. In addition to hearing about Annual Conference on June 8, it is also Pentecost, when we celebrate the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on a gathering in Jerusalem of people from all parts of the known world. Everyone heard the Gospel proclaimed to them in their own languages, and many came to know Christ. Pentecost is considered to be the birthday of the church. The liturgical color for Pentecost is red, so I want to encourage everyone to wear red on June 8, just like we have done on the last several Super Bowl Sundays.

Then, beginning on June 15 we will begin a series that considers the question, "What would St. Paul text?" Some of the writings of Paul or attributed to Paul in the New Testament are some of the most eloquent and beautiful prose in all of scripture. But these texts were about getting the point across, arguing for faith, and inviting the readers or hearers to a deeper experience of the risen Christ. So, what are those core elements, those essentials that would bring the desired outcome? What would Paul text to open the conversation and get readers to claim the faith he presents? That's what we hope becomes clear as we engage in the conversation, "Dear Children of God."

Finally, because June has five Sundays, we will have a fifth Sunday Fellowship Dinner. It will be a potluck, and you will hear more about it as the date draws near. Put it on your calendar and plan now to attend. That's about it for now. Everyone have a beautiful summer and don't forget to tell a friend about our church. Invite them to join us some Sunday to experience our warm hospitality for themselves. And I'll see you there!

Blessings,
Pastor Kim
